

SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

BRADY BOBENDRIER PIPESTONE, MINNESOTA

- Parents - Tom & Shelly Bobendrier
- Majoring in Animal Science at the University of Minnesota
- Has a flock of 50 ewes in partnership with his three brothers
- Played baseball, basketball and golf in high school
- Participated at the NAILE Junior and Open Shows, All-American Junior Show and the Minnesota State Fair
- Member of the third place meats evaluation team at the 2014 National FFA Convention
- Member of the fourth place livestock skill-a-thon team at the 2014 NAILE

CHELSEA KEGLER MANSFIELD CENTER, CONNECTICUT

- Parents - Paul & Bonnie Kegler
- Majoring in Agribusiness at Kansas State University
- Has downsized her flock to six ewes and a ram since she is away at college
- Participated in basketball, skiing and snowboarding in high school
- Member of the 2015 Collegiate National Champion Wool Judging Team
- Participated at the All-American Junior Show as well as other local, state, regional and national shows
- Sells lamb at local farmers markets under the label "Chelsea's Blue Ribbon Lamb"

CHELSEA SHELL MIDLAND, OHIO

- Parents - Dan & Marla Shell
- Majoring in Agriculture Education at Southern State Community College
- Currently has a flock of 31 ewes in partnership with her family
- Participated at the All-American Junior, Ohio State Fair and the NAILE Junior Show
- Participated in basketball and soccer in high school
- Participated at the All-American Junior Show as well as other local, state, regional and national shows
- State FFA Sheep Proficiency Award winner in 2013
- Received her American FFA Degree in 2015

